Sister Lois Bonner

Sister Lois Bonner has accepted a mission call for the LDS Church to the Minnesota-Minneapolis Mission. Her farewell will be Jan. 1, 1984 at 2:45 p.m. in the Midway 1st, 2nd, 4th Ward Chapel. She will enter the MTC January 11, 1984.

Don Clyde was the next stake superintendent called, and was sustained on June 20, 1926. Floyd Bonner was selected as first assistant and Nymphus C. Watson as second assistant. On March 11, 1928, Don Clyde was released from the Sunday School to serve as a counselor in the stake presidency. Nymphus C. Watson became superintendent with William C. Wilcox and Walter Montgomery as assistants. William C. Murri was secretary.

The next reorganization was May 26, 1929, when Joseph Olpin was sustained as superintendent with William C. Wilcox and Walter Montgomery as assistants. Owen F. Buell was secretary. In September of 1930 Elder Olpin was sustained as bishop of Heber First Ward and was succeeded in the Sunday School by Livingston C. Montgomery. His assistants were William C. Wilcox and Nephi Probst. Owen F. Buell continued as secretary. Then on October 29, 1933, Frank Epperson became second assistant after Elder Wilcox moved to Idaho. During 1935 Nephi Probst became a member of the stake presidency and Vernon Probst was sustained in the Sunday School on November 17, 1935.

Oswald L. Pearson was the next Sunday School superintendent, and

Maren Durtschi
Is Named
County Nurse

Maren Durtschi resigned a supervisory position at St. Marks Hospital to become the Wasatch County Public Health Nurse. Mrs. Durtschi has been with the St. Marks Hospital for over nine years since coming to Utah.

She was born and reared in New Jersey, attended Emerson High School. Since then Mrs. Durtschi has had varied experiences which include private duty, general hospital nursing, team leading, charge nurse in labor and delivery room. For several years she was affiliated with the National Polio Foundation, caring for patients acutely ill with poliomyelitis.

Prior to coming to Utah, Mrs. Durtschi was a School Nurse-Teacher in Port Jervis, N. Y. She attended several summer sessions at N. Y. State Teachers College at Oneonta, N. Y., and Hartwick College at Oneonta.

In 1958 she visited Utah, was converted to the LDS Church, and was baptised June 6, 1959, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

In 1960 she came to Utah to attend the University of Utah, graduating with a major in nursing in June 1963. For three years she taught in the St. Marks Hospital School of Nursing.

On August 14, 1969 she married Alma F. Durtschi in the Salt Lake Temple.

Last October she attended IRMP, the Coronary Care Class at the University of Utah. As a supervisor at St. Marks she rewrote the Hospital Nursing Procedure Book.

Citizen Of The Week

MAREN DURTSCHI

"Citizen of The Week." A special citation given to outstanding individuals by recognition in the Wasatch Wave, who in the eyes of another citizen has given of themselves or of their resources, a display of citizenship above that which is expected.

We honor Maren Durtschi this week

Maren is especially known for devotion to her profession as the Community Health Nurse.

As a devoted public servant, Maren has made herself available for many people who are in need of her services. Maren provides very needed instruction in home nursing care, whether it be for the aged or a new mother.

Other services that are provided by her are in every occasion provided in a friendly and a very professional manner.

To name a few of the services and organizations Maren belongs to, she is a member of the Wasatch Committee for Services for the Handicapped, Board of Health, Timpanogos Community Mental Health Center Advisory Council and the Wasatch County Council on Aging. She is also active in church and community affairs.

Above everything else, Maren is noted for her very special qualities. Maren is noted for always being available to assist in any way, to comfort, instruct and encourage the ill and the needy.

Maren spends many hours after her long days work and on weekends calling on those who need assistance and a word of encouragement. She has the very special qualities of always being understanding, sympathetic, knowledgeable and always available.

It is said of Maren, "She is a true angel of mercy—a real credit to her profession and to the community."
